

Volunteering Has Never Been Easier!

There are so many ways to give back and make the world a better, more Democratic place--and we're excited to bring you yet another curated list of GREAT ways to keep those volunteering muscles warm and ready, fam!

PLUS: we're excited to invite you to a fabulous event (as promised, team! Our Civic Conversations Series is underway!), in conjunction with the Kennedy Presidential Library--a panel on Police and Justice Reform!

PANEL ON POLICE AND JUSTICE REFORM

Reginald Dwayne Betts, poet, memoirist and teacher; Khalil Muhammad, Harvard professor of history, race, and public policy; and Chuck Wexler, executive director of the Police Executive Research Forum, discuss current issues in police and justice reform with The New Yorker staff writer and Columbia professor of journalism Jelani Cobb.

Kennedy Library education and public programs on civil rights and social justice are supported in part by AT&T.

WHEN: WEDNESDAY APRIL 21 3PM PDT//6PM EDT

Our Rapid Response phonebanks are HAPPENING! We're chuffed to continue working with the Center for Common Ground, working diligently in the fight against voter suppression. Our targets change every phonebank, BUT we're always in it, and ready to go--come and join us! It's a blast, and training is provided!

To date, 43 states have introduced over 250 bills to restrict voting according to the Brennan Center for Justice. These laws seek to limit vote-by-mail access, impose strict voter ID, slash early voting, and enable more aggressive voter roll purges.

It's Time to Write Postcards!
